

- Alcohol is not permitted at Roslyn Picnics.
- Groups may bring and prepare their own food items using the Pavilion facilities but catering companies are not permitted to cook or serve food items on Roslyn's grounds as Roslyn offers full-service catering picnic catering form (Publisher)).
- Loud music is not permitted at Roslyn picnics as it may be disruptive to other conference and meeting participants and nearby residents.
- As we often have conference groups in residence while picnic groups are in progress, we ask that you avoid Tucker Hall, and the other conference center buildings and their adjacent areas.
- Groups are responsible for their own clean-up. Containers for refuse and garbage are provided in the pavilion and dumpsters are located nearby.
- Please park only in parking lots. Overflow parking is available in the lower pavilion field. Please do not park on any other grassy area except that in the lower pavilion field.
- For health and safety purposes, no pets (except for service dogs) are allowed on Roslyn grounds at any time.
